Our Opinion

“ A stay at Verdura was just what we needed; sun, sea, sand and Sicilian hospitality. It was the perfect taste of Italy without the hustle and bustle. I'm not surprised the kids club is voted the best in Europe. Our two absolutely loved the variety of activities on the programme and I thought the attention to detail for the kids, such as the mini bathrobes, were a really special touch. It was a blissful five days with outstanding facilities and incredible food. ”

Trip Overview

Verdura Resort perfectly balances contemporary luxury and timeless hospitality. Beyond its stunning beauty, Verdura offers an extensive menu of family amenities and both entertaining and enriching clubs for babies, kids and teens. Young travelers will be excited by the choice of activities on offer from cookery classes, interactive science sessions and an array of sports academies hosted by qualified coaches and stars. Your little ones will adore the unique Mascot turn-down service and feel like the valued guest they are with special details such as the personalised Rocco Forte Kids passport at check-in, welcome treats and animal cuddly toys. For older children, even bespoke spa treatments, in-room kids bar and a dedicated space for young adults to hang out has been thoughtfully considered by the team.

In addition to the fantastic kids clubs, a 24-hour babysitting service is available. Why not book some quality me-time and indulge in a couple of hours at the Irene Forte Spa or discover the vast list of water sports activities hosted by qualified instructors? Verdura Resort presents championship links style courses, designed by Kyle Phillips offering uninterrupted views of the azure waters from the undulating greens. Practice your swing and enjoy a truly scenic golfing experience.

All rooms are conveniently positioned within walking distance from the main building and comprise of idyllic views across the glittering Mediterranean Sea or the luscious golf course. The resort's Concierge is on hand to assist with your room set-up and any useful items you require such as a baby cot or sterilisers. In the bathroom, you'll find sumptuous robes and slippers for the whole family, baby bath products, hooded towels and rubber ducks for the little ones and luxurious Irene Forte Skincare toiletries for the grown-ups.

A trip to Sicily wouldn't be complete without a selection of sublime gastronomy. With four restaurants and two bars, you will be spoilt for choice. Beachfront restaurant, Amare, offers fresh seafood caught that very day and respectfully prepared by the chef. We recommend sampling the restaurant's specialty, 'crudo', served for generations in Sicilian fishing villages. 'Crudo' is thinly sliced catch of the day with extra virgin olive oil, citrus fruits and a pinch of rock salt. For a more relaxed and rustic affair, check out Liolà; a typical Sicilian trattoria with its own pizzeria and a large outdoor terrace overlooking the magical ocean. Meanwhile, Zagara's menu revels in the flavours and ingredients of the Mediterranean and Buongiorno serves up breakfast; a sensational place to start the day. The restaurants offer special kids' menus and highchairs, kids' crockery and bibs are all available upon request.
